Framingham, Mass., June 10.—Employees of the Boston & Worcester Street Railway Co., who claim to represent virtually all the workers of that system, today voted to refuse to take the cars from the barns Saturday morning unless the National War Labor Board meantime announces its decision in a pending wage dispute. Approximately 250 employees are said to be involved in the action voted today which, if made effective, would tie up the trolley service between Boston and Worcester and affect also local lines in Marlboro and Framingham.

Gay, patient, today visited the former residence of Miss Gay in Andover. The defendant had passed the night at her own home in Andover as she was allowed to continue during the trial the liberty which she has recently enjoyed because of her weakened condition. Counsel said she had withstood the strain of the opening day of the trial well. While the peace conference heads are devoting as much of their time as feasible to the framing of the reply to the German counter proposals, this work has not yet reached such a stage as to make possible the naming of a definite date for presentation of the document to the German plenipotentiaries. The main question which the Council now is considering in connection with the German treaty is the proposed change in the covenant of the league of nations whereby the terms of Germany's admission would be made easier. The proposed changes are said to be prompted mainly by a desire to forestall the possible formation of another combination of nations with Russia, Germany and the German allies taking the leading roles. The Turkish delegation en route to France on board a French warship is to appear before the peace conference merely in an advisory capacity and its members will not be considered as plenipotentiaries. The important political event in Germany not for today is the national convention of the Majority Social Party at Weimar. The meeting of this party, its first since it took control of the government, is expected to have a considerable bearing on the government's future course, not only as regards Germany's foreign relations, but her internal affairs.

Paris, June 10.—The Council of Four met today amid an atmosphere of considerable pessimism over the "larger questions of peace making with Germany unsolved. It is understood that Premier Clemenceau has not moved from his position against any modification of the peace terms. No settlement of the Russian question or that concerning the Polish western frontier has been reached. It is stated that the Russian problems are tied up with the difficulty of holding a plebiscite without allied occupation, no troops being available for the purpose.

VILLA MAKING AN ADVANCE IN MEXICO

(By Associated Press)
El Paso, Tex., June 10.—Villa's forces occupied Guadalupe, a Mexican town opposite Fabens, Texas, 32 miles east of El Paso last night, according to information from Fabens today. An other force said to be part of Gen. Angeles' forces is moving toward Juarez. There was no fighting at Guadalupe, Carranza's garrison having been called to Juarez last week.

FIGHT AGAINST LEAGUE STARTED

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 10.—A resolution to have the Senate declare it could not concur in the league of nations provisions of the peace treaty as now drawn was introduced today by Senator Knox, Pennsylvania, Republican, of the Foreign Relations Committee. The resolution which is expected to bring to a more definite stage the fight being made against the league of nations asks that the covenant be separated from the peace treaty before submitted to the Senate for ratification. At the request of Senator Knox, who announced that he would later discuss it in the Senate the resolution was referred to the Foreign Relations Committee.

AUTHORITY TO DECLARE WAR ASSERTED

(By Associated Press)
San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua, Monday, June 10.—The Nicaraguan government is reported in usually reliable quarters to have confidential information that the Costa Rican Minister of War recently obtained from the congress of that country the authority to declare war upon Nicaragua. The authorization was said to be in a form which permitted him to make the declaration at an opportune moment. As Costa Rican forces are now advancing from Santa Rosa near the Nicaraguan border, it is supposed here that the declaration already has been published in Costa Rica.

We are pleased to announce that we have obtained for this city the exclusive sale of the Nationally known and Nationally favored
Wirthmor and Welworth Waists
—After a very careful investigation we have arranged to distribute these two nationally-known and nationally-favored lines of Waists in this city. Before deciding on this step we learned the Wirthmor and Welworth Waists were being handled by many of the best stores in America; that they had attained through their unvarying excellence a nation-wide popularity; that because of the unique Wirthmor Plan under which they are made and sold that they always represented the highest possible standard of value in popular price. Blouses, and further because of this very unusual method of making and selling Waists we would be able to show the new and wanted styles first, in many instances, long in advance of their appearance in the market generally.
These are America's only known priced Waists; and they are sold at the same low prices the nation over.

CONVICTION OF MURDER HOLDS

Baldorf, Mo., June 10.—John C. Storah was legally convicted of the murder of Helen Duquette, his housekeeper, here, on Aug. 29, 1917, according to a verdict received today from the jury which dismissed his appeal taken on exceptions. He will be sentenced later.

Counsel contended that Storah could not be tried legally a second time because his life had been placed in jeopardy once at the first trial, when the jurors were discharged after Storah had exclaimed in their presence at the scene of the murder: "Take me away from here or I shall go insane again!" WAR PROBE IS VOTED

Berlin, June 10.—The constitutional convention has completed its consideration of a bill creating a state court which would try those accused of starting, lengthening and losing the war. It will be presented to the national assembly soon.

The measure provides for a committee of 15 members of the national assembly to investigate the political and military leadership of the country prior to and during the war, and requires the government to produce any documents needed at the projected trial. The court would be composed of 15 members, including the presidents of the imperial, military, Prussian, Bavarian and Hanseatic supreme courts, five members of the national assembly and five senators. The accused would be permitted to have counsel and would be given the privilege of testifying. Deliberations of the court would be secret and there would be no appeal from its verdict.

"The people demand an explanation as to who is guilty for the way why it was not ended earlier, and whether the latest result would not have been or partly wholly avoided," says the statement which will accompany the bill which it is presented to the national assembly. "This is the task of a state court, although it can render no final verdict because it is unable to see the archives of other countries participating in the war. Nevertheless, Germany's desire to withhold nothing from the rest of the world, and not to spare the guilty, has caused the government to apply for the creation of an international investigation commission, which is debited by its opponents. So this court should be created to investigate whether Germany has been guilty of conduct against the Fatherland."

The statement declares the court should be above party politics, and responsible only to its conscience.

SENATE NOW HAS A COPY OF TREATY

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 9.—Out of the whirlwind of developments of today the Senate got a copy of the Peace terms and after five hours of heated debate ordered it printed. It also got under way its investigation as to how the copies of the treaty reached certain people in the country before it was submitted to the Senate.

The copy which was presented to the Senate by Senator Borah was brought into the country from Germany by a Chicago newspaperman and it was brought into the Senate immediately after the reading of President Wilson that he would not give out the treaty until it had been signed.

The effects of the strenuous day was the clearing of the air on the points of the treaty, the settling of the breach between the President and the majority members of the Senate and the starting of the investigation. The Foreign Relations Committee almost immediately after they met called J. P. Morgan, H. P. Davidson, Jacob Schiff, Paul Warburg and Frank Vanderlip, all prominent New York bankers to tell what they knew about the terms of the treaty reaching New York.

ENOUGH TROOPS AT MEXICAN BORDER

Washington, June 9.—Major General Cabell, commanding the Southern Department and the Mexican border, in a special report to the War Department today advised against any increases in forces at this time. The forces now under his command, General Cabell said, were sufficient to handle any contingency that could be foreseen.

CAUSE OF THE EGYPT UPRISING

Paris, June 9.—A statement concerning the present disorders in Egypt explaining the situation from the viewpoint of the agitators, has been given to The Associated Press by Mohamed Mahmoud Pasha, a member of an Egyptian Delegation of twenty, which is here to ask the Peace Conference to recognize the independence of Egypt. Mohamed Mahmoud Pasha was at one time governor of the Suez Canal and later governor of the province of Hehena. He with three other leaders of his party were deported recently to Malta but were released after a month and came on to Paris. His statement follows:

"The political status of Egypt underwent a great change, owing to the war. International relations between Egypt and other countries must be rearranged, and the British Protectorate which was proclaimed at the beginning of the war and which has never been accepted by the Egyptian people, was a war measure and cannot stand after the termination of the war.

"All these questions which emanated from the war can be settled by the Peace Conference only, and a proper settlement necessitates the hearing of Egypt's voice therein. For these reasons the Egyptian delegation was empowered by means of mandates from all classes of the Egyptian people to come to Paris, plead the cause of their country before the Peace Conference, and request therefrom the recognition of the independence of Egypt.

"But the delegation was prevented by the British authorities from leaving Europe, and the Egyptian Ministry which was in complete solidarity with the people, resided only in March last. No Egyptian was found to form a Ministry, and for this bankruptcy of British administration in Egypt, the delegation was held responsible.

"The chairman, Saad Zaghloul Pasha, former Minister of Education and later of Justice, and now vice president of the Egyptian Legislative Assembly; Ismail Sidkey Pasha, former Minister of Religious Endowments, Hanna El Bashi Pasha, one of the leading Bedouin chiefs and a member of the legislative assembly; and myself were arrested on March 8 and deported to Malta without any charge or inquiry.

"The Egyptian people almost to a man demanded our immediate release and the immediate departure of the delegation for Europe. Their indignation reached a very high pitch when they saw in this violation of individual liberty an attempt at depriving Egypt from enjoying the liberal principles of President Wilson, and they also saw that all the enormous sacrifices which, in the hangings of General Allenby, were to a very large extent responsible for the decisive victory over the Turks were in vain.

"Representative Egyptians from Alexandria to Assuan lodged a stern protest against such a treatment. Young men and the students made peaceful demonstrations, but the British troops opened fire at them. Yet the demonstrations continued and the fire of machine guns and rifles continued unabated. A very large number were killed in Cairo and the provincial cities.

"This revolution is a national movement against a foreign domination, which is abhorred by the entire Egyptian population. Mohammedans and the Christians are in absolute accord. The Egyptian movement is neither religious nor anti-foreign, nor instigated by Germany or Turkey. It is a deep rooted desire on the part of all the inhabitants of the Valley of the Nile for the attainment of the independence of their country."

GOOD SCORING IN NATIONAL TOURNAMENT

(By Associated Press)

Newton, Mass., June 9.—Charles Hoffman of Philadelphia shot a fine 72 over the Bra Burn course today in the opening round of the annual open championship. He was low man in a field of 132 golfers. His card tied the course record made some years ago by Thomas Macnara. Practically all of the favorites turned in low cards and will be in the final 72 holes.

ENGLISH LABOR TO DEMAND REFORMS

U. S. SHIP BUILDING A BIG FACTOR

London, June 9.—The United States was building on March 31 twice as much shipping as was Great Britain, according to the figures given by Lloyd's Register for the first three months of 1919.

The total amount of all shipping under construction on that date in Allied and neutral countries was given as 7,796,246 tons. Great Britain's share of this was 2,354,345. The United States was then building 4,155,223 tons of shipping.

These figures credit the United States with 75 percent of the total tonnage under construction in Allied or neutral countries outside of Great Britain and it is pointed out that the United States is now building 23 times as much as it was in June, 1914. One London paper says the effect of so many newly built ships entering into sea-going trade already is being felt.

Why You Should Buy Coal Now

The price of coal is 75 per cent determined by wages. The wage agreement at the mines continues until April 1, 1920. The Fuel Administration reports that 35 per cent of the mines cannot make any money at the present mine prices. In view of this, how can coal be cheaper this year?

Bigger Tax Bills Coming.

An article published in a Boston paper a few days ago should serve as a vivid reminder to the people of that city that pay day is coming, not the day when the people draw their pay, but the time when they begin to square the accounts that have been run up since the United States entered the war. And the matter should be of general interest also, for the reason that the results of war expenditures in Boston are probably not much different from what they are in every city in the country. Money has been flying freely, making what are commonly considered "good times," but in the meantime large obligations have been assumed and the bills that have been contracted must be paid.

This means that the tax payers must come to the front and stay there for years, meeting tax bills which in the case of most communities will be larger than ever before. All through New England tax rates are steadily mounting and the probability is that the maximum has not yet been reached.

This is no cause for wonderment or surprise, and if there are those who in the general excitement of the times forgot that there must be a day of settlement they are due for an awakening when this year's tax bills come in. And the job will not be done when the taxes for 1919 are paid. It will only have been begun. It will take the country many years to recover from the effects of the tremendous expenditures of the war period.

But this is no excuse for failure to pay taxes promptly. On the other hand, it should spur every man to meet his obligations to his town, county and state when due, and tax collectors should be prompt and thorough in the performance of their duties. That this fact is recognized in Boston is shown by the issuance of warrants for large numbers of men who have not paid their 1918 poll taxes, and many parcels of real estate are to be advertised for sale because of non-payment of taxes. In addition to the necessity for squaring their present accounts the Boston tax collector warns poll tax payers that they will have to pay $5 next year, the money being necessary to cover the payment of bonuses to state soldiers, sailors and marines.

These conditions are not confined to Boston and Massachusetts, but prevail in all parts of the country, and it is time to be giving thought to the inevitable. High taxes cannot be avoided for years to come, and for this reason care should be taken in the matter of public expenditures. It is not necessary to be big game, but true economy is in order if the burden that has been created is not to become oppressive. In some quarters there is advocacy of unusual public improvements in order to keep things moving and create a market for labor at wages never before dreamed of, but it will be well for communities to remember that they must ultimately settle for what they have, and to "cut the coat according to the cloth."

There is no occasion for panic or alarm, but it is time to recover from the frenzy of war conditions and prepare to face the music that is bound to be heard in the immediate future, whether we want to hear it or not.

Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts promptly and wisely vetoed the bill increasing the salaries of members of the Legislature from $1,000 a year to $1,500. The tax payers of the state will appreciate his action, and some of them are liable to remember the men who voted for the bill in case they come up for re-election. The time for "hogging it" with impunity is about up in this country.

Portsmouth veterans are early in the movement for the formation of the American Legion and have appropriately named their Post in honor of the first man from this city to be killed in France. The members of the organization are enthusiastic and Frank Booma Post will be a credit to them and to Portsmouth.

An aerial taxi service between Boston and North Shore resorts will be a decided novelty, to say the least. What it will amount to practically remains to be seen. It is probable that none of the railroads, trolley or steamboat lines will go out of business until there are further developments.

It looks as if the days of yeomen (F) at the local navy yard were numbered. Nevertheless the women have done faithful work during a period of stress and their services are appreciated by the government to which they have been rendered.

Cheer up! The railroad deficit in April was only about $58,000,000, making the total for the first four months of the year $250,000,000. No wonder that former champions of "government ownership" are dropping by the wayside.

That summer camp for boys on Belle Isle is to be of the highest sort and in the right hands. The boys who are admitted to it will be fortunate, as the physical and other training they will receive will be invaluable.

It begins to look as if daylight saving might go down and out at the end of the season.

ALL POLICE REMOVED—NEW FORCE IN

(By Associated Press)

Winnipeg, June 10.—Reorganization of the Winnipeg police force was begun today, the city having discharged yesterday all policemen who refused to sign an oath not to join a sympathetic strike hereafter. Meanwhile protection was being furnished by several hundred constables recruited from returned soldiers. Further desertions from the ranks of the strikers were predicted by members of the citizens committee. Today, the eighth day of the strike in Vancouver, B. C., found life there nearly normal.

The sympathetic strike of Winnipeg iron workers which began on May 15th was considered broken today so far as its effect upon the safety, welfare and convenience of the general public is concerned. It was estimated that about one third of the men and women involved in the sympathetic walk out have returned to work and that many others have applied for their former positions.

MONEY KINGS WILL BE HEARD WEDNESDAY

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 10.—Telegrams requesting J. P. Morgan, Henry P. Davison, Thomas W. Lamont, Jacob Schiff, Paul Warburg and Frank A. Vanderlip, New York financiers, to appear before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee tomorrow and testify in the investigation of how copies of the peace treaty reached private interests in New York, were sent out by direction of Chairman Lodge. Instructions were given yesterday by the committee that subpoenas for the witnesses be issued but Chairman Lodge decided to summon them by telegraph. Meanwhile members of Congress had copies of the treaty which were published today in the Congressional Record. Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, who feared printing of the treaty yesterday was understood to plan today to have the Senate enter the text printed as a public document which would make it available for distribution as a complete volume.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

A Prince of Promoters

(From the New York World)
 The man who sold the City Hall is no dodo. Life exists. He sold also, or tried to sell, Grant's Tomb and the dual-subway system. To put such genius in a mere jail is waste of human material.

The Hot Wave in the Northwest
 (From the Springfield Republican)
 The political weather is unusually warm in North Dakota, with a big bribery charge against the nonpartisan league leader and counter-charges that the "interests" are financing the proposition. It indicates a close fight on the referendum test of the league's proposals in State socialism.

Boys' Jobs for Boys.
 (From the New Bedford Standard)
 Governor Coolidge's vetoes are full of good straight talk. The bill threatening the salaries of judges from $100 to $150 a year was passed, one suspects, as a piece of camouflage to cover the more important bill which increased the salary of the legislators from $100 to $150. This governor does not touch on that phase of the matter, but he gives adequate reasons for disapproving the measure. As he says, the page's job is properly a boy's job, and the present compensation, considering the length of session, is adequate.

Cheaper Up, Everywhere!
 (From the Albany Journal)
 The cheaper cattle from which cheaper meat is promised should also provide cheaper hides to be made into cheaper leather, for cheaper shoes.
 Chicago, Gets What She Bought
 (From the Springfield Republican)
 Chicago is feeling the effects of a new form of boycott, due to its quarrel with her "sixth German city" in the world. The Republican National Committee will probably avoid Chicago as the place of the next Republican National Convention, just as the newly formed American Legion did in preferring Minneapolis.

Germany's Golden Calf
 (From the Brooklyn Times)
 Germany does not want to surrender. Wilhelm II. has been and has him tried for his crimes by an Allied tribunal. The majority of Germans still seem to feel a sense of loyalty to this fallen monarch. They have openly sympathized with him in his exile. They have never in their hearts and seldom with their tongues blamed him for the origin or conduct of the war. They have never seen through his shallow bombast, his atrocious brutality and plotting before them and the rest of the world. They associate him with the days of Germany's real happiness and greatness. Many of them are still convinced that except for unforeseeable accidents of war, he would have led them, as the chosen people of the modern world, into new and greater happiness and glory. It seems not at all unlikely that most Germans would rejoice to see their former Kaiser on his throne again. What can be done with a nation that persists in worshipping the golden calf of royalty even while professing the faith and observing the forms of democracy? The first step, obviously, is for the Allies to make a thorough exposure of Hohenzollern pretence and crime and then take the Hohenzollern family and remove it, root and branch, by exile or imprisonment, from all connection with the German people. Deprived of their imperial idols, they may in time attain a self-respecting political faith that will enable them to understand modern civilization and make them safe to live with.

Calling A Spade A Spade
 (From the New York Evening Sun)
 Nothing could be more wholesome, or promise better for the future, than Mr. Gillett's plain, blunt statement that his remarks on Mexican conditions were deliberate, but he knew they would hurt and meant they should, although he regretted the necessity. There was no animosity or jingling of the need of calling a spade a spade.

"I thought," said he, "it would be preposterous in a discussion of the commercial conditions on this continent to have no allusion to Mexico, whose persistent failure to observe her international obligations and protect foreigners engaged in commerce has been notorious and is the most flagrant obstacle to commercial intercourse and growth in our hemisphere."

Main talk, from a real grown-up man. It will be salutary. We have had seven years of evasion, subterfuge, abortive experiments and much linguistic forgery. Fine phrases and full of action. It is high time for a change.

Nor is there any need of bitterness; no desire to offend or arouse latent antagonism. On the contrary, if Mexicans could understand that we mean not only well to them, but that when we speak we mean precisely what we say, the greatest difficulties will vanish. There is no aid to understanding on each side, greater than direct unambiguous truth telling. It calls for "open diplomacy" as a reality. Mr. Gillett may well have done more to clear up the situation than has been accomplished in the past seven years.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Will Command 5-4
 Comdr. P. K. Robertson has been ordered to the local navy yard in connection with construction of the S-4, which he will command when placed in commission.

Treated at Dispensary
 J. P. Mulvihill, a foot mender in the Industrial Department who was injured while on the way to work on Monday morning by an automobile, was treated at the yard dispensary and later sent to his home on Boyd road. He sustained a bad laceration of the right side and several severe bruises on the arm.

It Will Be Bad.
 If the train from Newburyport and Rochester for the yard workmen is discontinued it will mean that 300 or more men will either have to give up their work or move to this city, Kittery or some other nearby town.

Yard Team vs. Southerly
 The navy yard ball team of the Sun set League will meet the U. S. S. Southerly for the first clash today. Scrutiny for the yard also will be on the firing line for the first time.

Pay Will Be Permanent.
 The pay scale which has been in effect in the navy during the war will be made permanent. The House committee on naval affairs is reported to be unanimously in favor of the passage of the necessary legislation in the navy appropriation bill which must be passed before July 1.

Man Are Anxious.
 The matter of train service for out of town workmen at the yard is giving them much concern and it is hoped that the necessary trains can be continued for the benefit of these employees. The matter will depend on the outcome of the conference in Boston today.

TOTAL WHEAT PRODUCTION

1,236,000,000 BUSHELS

Forecast of Department of Agriculture From Condition June 1—Winter Crop Largest Ever Grown

Washington, June 9.—A wheat production of 1,236,000,000 bushels this year, combining the winter wheat and spring wheat crops, was forecast today by the Department of Agriculture from the condition of the crop June 1. Winter wheat production is forecast at 693,000,000 bushels, compared with 593,150,000 bushels forecast last month making it the largest ever grown. Condition of winter wheat was 94.9 percent of a normal, compared with 100.5 last month and 85.8 last year.

Spring wheat production is forecast at 543,000,000 bushels, compared with last year's production of 569,000,000 bushels, which was a record crop. Average this year is 22,593,000. Condition of the crop June 1 was 81.2 percent of a normal, compared with 95.2 a year ago.

SIDELIGHTS FROM A VISIT TO THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

(By F. W. Hartford)

Washington, June 7.—The candidacy of General Leonard Wood for the Republican nomination whether authorized by him or not has taken its root and unless there is a tremendous change between now and the date of the convention it will be a whitewash. Some of the "wise" ones say his campaign was launched too soon and assign other pitfalls—this is the usual dope from those who were not invited to help "launch him." Wood has a big following, he is a great organizer, has many of the qualities of T. A. R. member meeting him at three White House receptions with the Newspaper Publishers and saw both he and Teddy in action. He is 100 per cent American big in every way. There is Senator Harding one of the big long range guns a great orator, clean, capable, and a fighter and warm blooded. He hasn't said yes or no. If he should go in he would have to be reckoned with. There are those who feel that Senator William Johnson, of California, more correctly meaning to the needs of the hour, I repeat with much pleasure, a running debate I had with him at the Chicago Convention when he nominated Taft. He is a leader of men, a progressive, and would command a large following. Johnson is big enough for the job all right.

The Big Parties Are Manoeuvring.
 "Manoeuvring" is the word or perhaps "camouflaging" would fit the present situation here when it comes to understanding just what the Republicans and Democrats are up to. You know when you talk with the average politician here at the Capital that he is trying to find out just what is bent for his party not his country. This ought not to be so, but it is. What is the feeling in New England about the R. of N. you were asked on every hand. Our people are for it. What? Yes, we are willing to try anything once. We want no more wars.

Senator Keyes and Our Bridge
 Senator Keyes who as Governor, urged the Portsmouth bridge commission and has been a member since its passage is keen to put through a bill for government aid. He talked to me of the importance of placing the project with vigor. I look for a general retrenchment along all lines when it comes to Appropriations. Congress is going slow on expenditures but I am in hope we can get the necessary funds to make this much needed highway a reality.

Work Needed at Portsmouth
 The situation as to the need of work at the Portsmouth yard in order to prevent a big discharge this month was presented to the Secretary who directed immediate steps to relieve the situation. "Can you handle the dreadnought, Utah and Florida?" queried one of the chiefs. "We sure can and more just like them." The reputation of our navy yard in turning out ships on time has won a place in the department. It is different now and with better dry docking facilities the yard should attain its proper place.

Pure Americanism Needed in Washington.
 Regardless of the dangers in our country from half-baked subjects from abroad and the desire of certain big politicians to teach pure unadulterated Americanism to them, there is more need of it right here. The great need of the Nation today is big broad minded Americanism in Congress who will lead the way. "Stop, Look and Listen," and then act for country first and party second. It is evident to those who think and men who can look from the inside out and from the outside in—that the big men in Washington have become so hardened that they do not heed the call of the people. There is no need of present conditions being inflated or made more dangerous if our men at the capital would take heed. There is a need of a house cleaning and the power of certain men taken away.

Trying to Get Daniels
 The success of Secretary Daniels has, so to speak, put the goat of certain members of the "Washington ring." He has actually run the Navy Department without any assistance from them and has won a national reputation. Regardless of his political complexion he has made good, and is a bigger man today than all of his critics. The latest move of his enemies has been to send out a story now and then that he is going to resign. This yarn has to a certain extent, the suggestion of one of the Secretary's aids and many times has been accused of starting it. It can be said that Mr. Daniels will continue as long as Wilson remains the Chief Executive of the U. S.

You Will Sign Here
 It is certainly to smile when one acquainted with things at the Capital today, says of the departmental members with much pleasure many meetings with the late B. P. Peters, chief clerk of the Navy Department, on many years. You knew it was said of him that when our own Secretary Chandler was appointed as head of the Navy Department Peters marched into his office with an armful of papers and placing them on his desk said: "Mr. Secretary you sign right here—just over the title. Well, Mr. Clerk, I should like to look these papers over. Good! Good! are you going to try that old game—we never can do any business. Well, I intend to know what I sign—he did that day but Peters kept loading his desk and he surrendered early. My reference to Peters is simply to introduce F. S. Curtis his worthy successor, who was an understudy under Peters and he is a power—efficient and able and it is impossible to put anything by him or over him. He is the pulse, power and to a considerable extent, the brains of the routine. "You will sign here" is still in force in more ways than one.

Our Senator Knows 'Em All.
 It is doubtful if there is a U. S. Senator with a more extensive acquaintance than our own Senator Moses. He has spent quite a few years here, has been a regular attendant at the big party conventions and knows how to do things. By the way, it was "Moses" who first launched the Wood boom for President. He is a worker and burns the midnight oil. Don't worry about his getting lost. He carries "flash lights," wireless telephones and submarine detectors and his listening posts are doing good work in New Hampshire.

A Mad Rush to the People
 Right here is where you get a close range view of the fakery—the individual who has camouflaged labor—the deer people—the progressives—the stand patters etc. You know who they are in New Hampshire—the fellow who should what he wants to do—well he is here. He is now being uncovered—the people are as a matter of fact taking hold—the women have won and the day of the hot air artist and political trimmer is at hand. The individual who all his life has served the big fellows capital and the big corporations is to be for a time at least driven into his corner.

There is no more excuse for the coffee trust to double the price of coffee than there is to double the price on free air. If the big fellows in Washington want to render a real service to the people let them drop politics and go after a band of highway-men who are pilaging the country in the way of profiteering. The way to put a stop to Bolshevism is to start higher up.

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

Favors Improved Play Grounds
 Editor:—As stated in your paper recently a larger playground is much needed at the Farragut school. The health and safety of the large number of children attending this school demands that proper facilities be provided for their recreation. The health and vitality of the next generation of men and women depends on the care and treatment we give the children of today. We all know that the present Farragut school grounds have long been crowded and inadequate, and the surrounding streets with their busy traffic fraught with grave danger. The property surrounding the school on both sides should be purchased by the city and the buildings removed, thus making ample room for all of the children. The expense is, of course, an item to consider, but when we realize that the welfare of human beings are at stake, it must be conceded that the money spent would be well invested. I understand that the city government have started plans to achieve this end, and matters should be hurried along so that the new grounds will be ready at the opening of school in September.

SOME DIFFERENCE IN WAGES ON B. & M. IN 60 YEARS

In 1859 the Boston & Maine railroad, under the acts of the legislatures of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine, had been extended from Boston to South Berwick, Me., where it united with the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth railroad, a distance of 74 1-4 miles having 19 1-2 miles of double track, and branches to Medford and Methuen and Great Falls, amounting to 10 3-4 miles. A report of the committee of investigation appointed by the stockholders of the Boston & Maine railroad, presented at a meeting in Exeter, N. H., May 28, 1859, has just come to light.

From that report we learn that the 45,000 shares of the stock issued was owned by people of the three states. The books showed an expenditure, from the beginning of the road to June 1, 1859, of $843,532.27. Of that amount bridges had cost $358,653; depots, engine houses, machine shops and other buildings, $401,854, and land and fencing and rolling stock the balance.

At that time the road employed 430 persons and in view of the development of the road since the list is of interest.

In the superintendent's office there was a cashier who was paid $1,000 a year, two clerks at $150, and an office boy at $180.

There were nine conductors on passenger trains, five being paid $50 a month; one at $45 a month; two at $41.67; and one at $35 a month. There were four conductors on freight trains one at $45 a month, and three at $40.

There were 21 ticket masters, the highest salaried man being the official at Boston at $60 a month. Those at Lawrence and Great Falls received $50 a month, while Andover, North Andover, Exeter, Newmarket, and Dover, paid $40 a month; Somerville, dangerous situation existed. Of three persons injured in the crash Brewster was the worst hurt. He sustained cuts on the nose and knee. Lester Arnold, an occupant of his car, was cut on the hip; George A. Hatcher, owner and driver of a Massachusetts car, was severely bruised.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the memorial committee held in the select men's office at Ry, Tuesday evening June 10 at 8 o'clock for final decision of plans. A full attendance is desired.

KOREANS ARE MASSACRED BY JAPANESE

Tokio, June 9. (Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Thirty-five Koreans were shot or killed with swords or bayonets by Japanese soldiers in a Christian church building at Cheonan, forty miles from Seoul in connection with the Korean independence movement.

This has been confirmed by an investigation by British and American consular agents and by missionary leaders in Korea. The facts are admitted by the Japanese authorities at Seoul, including the Governor General Hasegawa. The authorities say that they deplore the outrage, that these guilty of it have been punished and that orders have been given to prevent a recurrence.

Investigators also have found that Soochung, another village near Cheonan, was burned by the Japanese and that several Koreans there were wounded in an attack by Japanese soldiers who shot them or used their swords and bayonets on them as they fled from their burning homes after the troops had set fire to the buildings.

Reports have been received of the burning of Christian churches in three other villages and Koreans told The Associated Press correspondent at Seoul that they could show him nine villages which had been burned by the Japanese.

Details of the massacre at Cheonan were obtained by The Associated Press correspondent who visited that place in company with Raymond S. Curtis, the American Vice-Consul at Seoul and Mr. Underwood, an American missionary. Subsequently the correspondent again visited the place with Mr. Lloyd, the British Consul and several missionaries including the Rev. Herron Smith, who is in charge of the work of the Methodist church in Korea. Describing his visit to Cheonan, the Seoul correspondent writes that when they asked residents of nearby villages why that hamlet had been burned they were told that it was because there was a Christian church and many native Christians in the village.

"When we got to the place which had been a village of about 40 houses we found only four or five standing; all the rest were smoking ruins," he continued. "We found a body, frightfully burned and twisted lying in a compound and another either of a young man or woman just outside the church compound. Several groups of people were huddled under little straw shelters on one hillside with a few of their pitiful belongings about them. They were mostly women, some old, others young mothers with babies but all sunk in the dull apathy of abject misery and despair. Mr. Underwood, an American missionary who talked to them in their own language brought the story of what had happened.

"The day before we arrived soldiers came to the village and ordered all male Christians to gather at the church. When about 30 were in the church the soldiers opened fire on them with rifles and then entered the church and finished them off with swords and bayonets. After this they set fire to the church and to houses which otherwise would not have been burned."

One Korean told the correspondent he was alive because he was not a Christian and was not in the church. Later when the correspondent made a second trip to Cheonan, with Mr. Royds, the British consul and a party of seven, including several missionaries, he said, "two photographs freely without interference but when we started to talk to the natives a policeman would appear up and the Korean would 'freeze up.' They were in fear of what might happen later if they were seen talking to us."

The party, however, divided up and obtained many interviews concerning the story as the correspondent learned it on his first visit. They were told that two of those killed in or near the church were women who went to that building to learn what was happening to their husbands.

The party headed by the British consul then visited Soochung and found the village had been. The Koreans told the visitors that they were awakened in the night by finding their houses on fire. When they ran out they were struck with swords, and bayonets or shot. None were killed but several were wounded and we saw one man whose arm had been laid open with a sword. A church and thirty houses had been burned here but no attempt made to clean up the others.

The Rev. Stacy L. Roberts and American Presbyterian missionary stationed at Pyeung-Yang has issued a statement asserting that more than 200 Koreans were shot or beaten to death in Pyeung-Yang and a church there was burned by Japanese.

In another village eight miles away another Christian church and an academy for boys were burned by Japanese soldiers after the contents such as benches, stoves and mats were carried away and put to use in the government school at Pyeung-Yang.

DOVER

Dover, June 10.—The Somersworth boys who served in the 26th division in France are to hold a ball at Central park Thursday evening of this week. The boys will put on a military drill and with the aid of the Boston K. of C. orchestra, will put over a big time.

In municipal court Monday morning Judge Mason found Rolland C. Brewster guilty of the charge of recklessly operating a car on Central avenue. He was fined $10 and costs total of $20.00. An appeal was taken and bond was furnished in the sum of $100 for appearance at the September term of the superior court. Attorney Blackburn appeared for the defendant.

Mrs. Mary Ann Elliot died at her home, 37 Sixth street, her age was 83 years, 11 months and 22 days. She was a native of Canada and has been a resident of Dover for many years. She is survived by one son, Joseph A. Elliot with whom she had made her home, and one daughter, Sister S. Benedict of a convent in Quebec.

The Dover high school basketball team will meet Sunborn Seminary at Kingston today.

The death of Professor Henry P. Warren, former principal of the Dover high school, is deeply regretted by numerous friends in Dover.

The new Dover baseball team will play the Great Falls Manufacturing company's team of Somersworth on Wednesday evening at 6.30.

The members of the Olive branch lodge, No. 6, Knights of Pythias at Cambridge, N. H., and Pythian Sisters attended divine services at the Dover Baptist church. The Rev. Arthur Smith, preached an excellent sermon.

MAY ALLOW GERMANY IN LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(By Associated Press)

Germany if she signs the peace treaty and gives a satisfactory guarantee that she will create a stable government and faithfully carry out the terms of the peace treaty, may be taken into the League of Nations.

The Council of Four have this important question under consideration and the reports are that there is no opposition to Germany becoming associated with the Allied and Associated governments in the league.

By permitting membership in the league the feeling prevails in Peace Conference circles that there will be less likelihood of that country forming an alliance with Russia, which would have a future disturbing effect upon the world's peace.

The Council of Four are busily engaged in going over the reports of the Commissioners which were made on Monday on the various points of the German counter proposals. While all of the commissioners have not reported there are enough in to give the assurance according to opinion in Paris, that the final word will be handed Germany the last of the week. It is stated that within five days after the handling of the answer the German must present their answer.

Fighting continues between the different factions Russia and the Hungarians, but this will be stopped as Premier Clemenceau has threatened to use Allied troops against them unless they stop fighting.

A court has been formed in Germany to bring to trial all those who have been responsible for the war or for its being prolonged and also for the cause of the loss of the war.

NEW ENGLAND BAPTISTS NEED MORE FUNDS FOR VICTORY CAMPAIGN

Prominent Baptists in New England will meet Friday evening at the Boston city club for the purpose of discussing plans to press the $5,000,000 Victory Campaign of the Northern Baptist Laymen.

About $500,000 is still needed to complete the fund. When this amount is raised John D. Rockefeller will contribute $2,000,000 in addition to the $750,000 he has already promised to give if the complete amount is raised.

He was arrested on Congress street on Monday afternoon by the police who heard that he had been making himself obnoxious to women and children. Wise is some boy and for long power he leads all others. He gave the entire afternoon from 2:30 to 3:30 at the police headquarters in defiance of the police requests to stop down. Not once did he use the soft pedal until late into the evening and every body at work in the municipal building was glad when the closing hour for work arrived. For this noisy period it cost him $17.25.

POLICE COMMISSION RULE FOR A SAFE AND SANE FOURTH

Junk Dealer Appeals for His License Fee; Vaughan St. Traffic Up Again for Discussion.

Portsmouth is to have a safe and sane Fourth of July as far as the police board can make it and the bid will be on for that holiday. This was decreed by the commission at a meeting held on Monday night during which the matter was under discussion for an hour or more.

The board ruled against the use of fire crackers and fire arms in the streets. No body is prevented from having fireworks, etc., at their home.

Should the city have a public celebration of any sort the commission will remove the ban on Young America can go to it, otherwise the rules are expected to be observed as in the past few years.

Samuel Yoffe, a junk dealer who recently had his license revoked owing to his failure to observe the law regarding the purchase of junk, appeared before the board and appealed for the refund of his license fee of $25. The board could find no law by which the commission is compelled to return any license money in the case of a violation of the rules, but agreed to give the matter further consideration.

Yoffe informed the board that he had secured legal advice relative to the matter and was informed that he had the right to expect his money back.

Once again the question of traffic at the junction of Vaughan and Hanover streets was taken up, which likely came about from the complaints of the situation there. No action was taken at this meeting but it is understood that if the necessary appropriation will be allowed, a traffic officer will be assigned to duty there.

MUCH KICKING AMONG LOCAL JITNEY MEN

Protesting Against Outside Parties Doing Business Here.

Local men who conduct a jitney business in and about Portsmouth are complaining bitterly about the many auto owners from other cities and towns coming here and getting into the game with their cars, especially from Maine.

It appears to be a hard matter to rule on as long as the parties can produce the required license fee. Some of the Portsmouth jitney owners state that they are to appeal to the city council. Unless there is some change made in the city ordinances covering this line of public conveyance. However, there is no end of kicking over the situation and it is hard to predict what the end will be.

Many musical members among the Poles will provide the musical program for the day and the guests will enjoy an open air feast on the lawn.

MANY CLAIMED THEY DID NOT KNOW OF THE BOXING BOUT

A good many of the boxing fans of this city did not show up at the bouts on Monday night for the reason that they did not know of the same which they claim was the lack of advertising. They realized that they missed a fast exhibition. The whole thing was a clean sport from start to finish and the best program seen in Portsmouth in many years. Those who admire the sport will do well to watch out in the future.

LOCAL BAKERS NOT RAISING THE PRICE OF LOAVES

The price of bread in Boston to retailers Monday took a half a cent leap per loaf and the consumer has already begun to feel the jump. The price of bread has not advanced in this city this week and local bakers feel there is no need of it, while the housewives would certainly feel it a hardship to have the price of a loaf of bread increase.

A number of local people are to attend the biennial convention of the National Federation of Music Clubs to be held at Peterborough June 28 to July 6. The convention represents about 600 clubs, over 100,000 members, but has never before met in New England or in a small town. The reason for the coming to this state is because Peterborough has the honor of being the home of the Edward MacDowell Memorial Association, to which the National Federation of Music Clubs has pledged to give financial aid and moral support.
